

A top-down view of a bottle of Simona Rosé Brunch sparkling wine and two glasses of rosé wine. The bottle is the central focus, tilted diagonally, with a golden foil top and a clear body filled with bubbly pink wine. Two glasses, one above and one to the left of the bottle, are also filled with the same bubbly wine. The background is a textured, light pink surface scattered with several rose petals and two small, partially visible roses. The overall aesthetic is soft, romantic, and elegant.
